

Being Human Masterclass - June 28th

Woburn Suite, Senate House WC1E 7HU

10.30am - 11.00am – Registration, tea and coffee

11.00am - 11.20am – Welcome, outline of the day

11.20am – 12.00am - Panel One – Creative Event Formats

- Dr Matthew Morrison, University of Westminster – ‘Everyday Poetry and Theatre’
- Dr Cynthia Johnston, University of London – ‘Finding Mr Hart’

12.00pm – 12.45pm – Workshop focussing on events planning and innovative formats for public engagement (led by Dr Jamie Gallagher).

12.45pm-1.30pm – Lunch and chance to meet the team

1.30pm- 2.10pm – Panel Two – Audiences & Partnerships

- Professor Paul Carr, University of South Wales – ‘Musical Memories of Merthyr Tydfil’
- Professor Trish Winter, University of Sunderland & Lyn Killeen, Freelance Artist and Participatory Arts Facilitator – ‘Putting Southwick on the Map’

2.10pm – 2.55pm – workshop focusing on working with – communities and harder to reach audiences (led by Dr Jamie Gallagher).

2.55pm– 3.10pm - tea break

3.10pm – 3.50pm – Panel Three – Impact and Evaluation

- Dr Helen Stark, UCL – ‘Emotional Objects’
- Dr Victoria McGuinness, TORCH, University of Oxford – ‘Lost Late – Night at the Museums’

3.50pm – 4.30pm – workshop on evaluation by Jenesys Associates, Being Human external evaluators.

4.30pm – 5. 00pm -- Being Human ‘meet the team’ Q&A

5.00pm - 5.15pm – Break

5.15pm – 6.00pm - Media masterclass panel (Sarah Churchwell, Nigel Warburton (Aeon, Philosophy Bites), Alex Clark (Guardian, TLS, Bath Festivals), Robyn Read (BBC Radio 3))

6.00pm – 7.00pm – Networking reception